

PLAY BALL TODAY

Willamette and Multnomah Seconds Will Battle

One of the Hardest Contested Struggles of the Football Season Is Anticipated

The second football team of Willamette University went to Portland this morning, where, this afternoon, the boys will meet the second team of the Multnomah club in a battle on the gridiron, and the prediction is confidently made by the backers of the team that the Willamettes will carry off an easy victory in this game. The players are in good training, several of them having played as substitutes with the first team in some of the hardest-fought battles of the year, and all of them have the benefit of the most painstaking training under Coach Metz, with the result that the aggregation is one of the strongest, all things considered, that has ever been placed in the field by Salem. Manager Skidmore accompanied the team, and will look after the welfare of the boys, and make all business arrangements. He is one of the best business managers the athletic department of the University has ever had, and the success of the football team this year is, in a large measure, due to his careful arrangement of the details. When the team left here the boys were modest as to their claims, but they expressed a determination to win if possible, and they pointed to their excellent record this year, showing that Willamette has only been scored against once during the season, and that at Eugene, under adverse circumstances.

Among the players going down to see the contest or participate in the game, were: Matthews, Winslow, M. Averill, E. F. Averill, Skidmore, Whitman, Judd, Pollard, Catlin, Shanks, Brown, Miles, Gardner, Fisher, Knotts and Trammell, all of them well-known on the gridiron. E. Hofer and son, Mac, went down to witness the game, which promises to be one of the most interesting of the season.

OREGON HISTORIES

Are Now Being Delivered, and the "Historians" Want the Coin.

Some months ago several men were in Eugene, and secured about 100 subscriptions in this city, and many more through the country, for a history of Oregon, with sketches of subscribers, at $18 each, or $75 for cut and sketch. The subscribers will

Sympathy

Is a good thing for the young husband to give the young wife. But sympathy will not abate one jot of her nervousness or lift her to that plane of sound health where alone the wife and mother can find happiness.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription meets every womanly want and need. It tranquilizes the nerves, restores the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. Its use previous to maternity makes the baby's advent practically painless and gives the mother abundant nutrition for her child. "Favorite Prescription" is a woman's medicine and has no equal as a cure for womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." No other medicine is "just as good" for weak and sick women. "It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'." writes Mrs. Flora A. of Dallas, Jackson Co., Mo. "I was tempted to try these medicines after seeing the effect upon my mother. At an early age of married life I was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me weak and unfit for work of any kind. I became so this there was nothing left of me but skin and bone. My husband became alarmed and got me a bottle of Favorite Prescription. After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

probably be glad (?) to learn that the books are now being delivered in some other parts of the state. It will not be long before the genial agents will reach Eugene, and commence delivery. In Clackamas county, according to reports, nine out of every ten of the subscribers refuse to accept them, but the book concern cares nothing for this, and leaves them on the premises somewhere.

Promissory Note.

The publishers hold what is said to be a promissory note, and there seems to be no doubt but what they can force the collection of them. It is more than likely that there will be some lawsuits over the matter.

Is Strange.

It is a remarkable strange incident how the average man will dig up from $10 to $100 for a writeup or cut in a book or paper of himself, when the matter is not worth one cent, except as a matter of pride and self-esteem.

The Guard would be glad to do such service for from $2.50 to $10.

Barnum was evidently correct when he remarked that nothing pleased the American people as much as to be bilked.—Eugene Guard.

Visiting Eugene.

Tuesday evening Miss Nancy Baker, of Salem, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. N. Roney, was surprised by a number of her friends at the Roney home, on West Sixth street. The evening was spent with music, dancing and other parlor games. A delicious luncheon was served during the evening by the hostess, who was fully prepared for the invaders. A very pleasant evening was passed by all. Those present were: Misses Clara Smith, Nellie Smith, Blanche and Nellie Whiteaker, Pearl Miller, Mable Williams, Alice Partlow and Mrs. Swanton; Messrs McGuire, Alva Harris and Chas. Roney. Miss Baker will leave Friday afternoon for her home in Salem.—Eugene Guard.

Play and Pay.

The Eugene police officers seem to be making a strong effort to prohibit gambling or any disorderly conduct in the Eugene saloons.

The proprietor of the Castle Cafe was notified yesterday afternoon that he must appear on a charge of violating the law forbidding gambling.

Mr. Barhite appeared before Recorder Dorris this afternoon, plead guilty, and was fined $100 for the offense.

This is the second saloon keeper to be arrested this week, and in each case they enriched the city $100.—Eugene Guard.
